1. On 15 June 1951, the southern section of the Hindenburg Kaserne, Leipzig (N 52/E 21), seemed to be only partly occupied by troops, who wore black-bordered blue epaulets, including some with air force insignia. Under the supervision of an officer with air force insignia, 32 soldiers wearing black coveralls cleaned 13x88mm AA guns without muzzle brakes, mounted on outrigger-type carriages. * Soldiers were seen sleeping on rows in a large garage in the northern section of the Hindenburg Kaserne. In addition, 26 canvas-covered artillery pieces which were larger than 150-mm. without muzzle brakes, were observed in the garage.
